LILIUMS

Easter in 1909 comes April 11.

LILIUM HARRISII. (The Bermuda Easter Lily.)

Extra Select Stock.

Our supply of this important variety is grown for us by one of the most careful growers in Bermuda, and we send them out with the full assurance that nothing better in quality can be had at any price. We do not, however, assume any responsibility for the crop after the bulbs are accepted by our customers. Owing to dry weather the crop of large size bulbs is very short. We, fortunately, have been able to fill all our orders in full, and have still a few left, which will hardly last until the middle of September.

Lilium Longiflorum, Formosa Grown.

These are expected to reach us early in September. They were tried in a limited way last year and gave very good results, being quite free from disease. Unfortunately they also have suffered from the dry weather, which seems to have been universal. We have no large bulbs to offer, but still have a limited lot of the 6 to 8 inch size, which we offer at $4.00 per 100; $38.00 per 1000.

Lilium Longiflorum Giganteum.

This is a fine late-flowering type, flowers very large, free and healthy. They require more heat to force than the other sorts.

CHINESE AZALEA

AZALEAS

Four reasons why you should place your order for Azaleas with us:

First. We have made a specialty of importing Azaleas for many years, and our continuously increasing trade in this line is positive proof that we are satisfying our customers.

Second. Our imports are all made in bulk; all stock is unpacked at our Nursery and orders filled here; badly budded plants as well as such that have suffered in transit are discarded and you receive nothing but perfect stock. This, many times over, makes up for the slight difference between our price and that at which plants of similar size are offered to you by the foreign agents or by such American houses who have their orders made up in Belgium, and who simply distribute the imported cases as received.

Third. We number among our customers many who formerly made their own importations, and who, after comparative trials, now place their full orders with us. If you have been in the habit of buying direct, let us have part of your order this season. We are convinced that after a trial you will in future also place your full order with us.

Fourth. We handle only varieties which are popular in the American market—we have no undesirable sorts to work off. You can, if you so wish, specify the exact varieties and quantities of each that you desire.

Remember, the prices are f. o. b., any Express, Freight or Steamship Line in Philadelphia. You have no Duty, Packing, Ocean Freight or brokers' expenses.

Hardy Azalea Mollis (For forcing).

Practically unknown for forcing purposes until a few years ago, the Azalea Mollis now holds a most important place, especially for the early winter months, and is gaining greater popularity each season; they are easily manipulated at a minimum of expense, and can readily be flowered any time after the middle of January.

We are handling the stock of one of the most successful specialists and can supply in November fine, bushy plants, 15-inches high, well set with buds, at $4.50 per doz.; $35.00 per 100.

BEGONIA GLOIRE DE LORRAINE

CYCLAMEN PERSICUM GIGANTEUM

Bougainvillea Glabra, William K. Harris.

In this new variety the foliage is beautifully variegated, or rather marbled, with creamy white on a dark green ground. These markings are very decided and the proportion of the two colors is almost equally divided.

Not only is the plant valuable for decorative purposes in or out of bloom, but also for out-door bedding, for use in window and porch boxes, for the bordering of ornamental foliage beds, such as Crotons, etc., or as an individual specimen on the lawn. It succeeds equally well in full sun or in partial shade.

DREER'S FINE FERNS.

THE BOSTON FERN AND ITS VARIETIES.

We offer below the Boston Fern and the best and most distinct varieties of it, all are highly desirable and among the most popular decorative house plants. The illustration above shows as clearly as a photo reproduction can show the general characteristics of the four leading newer kinds.

Nephrolepis Amerpohli.

The Philadelphia Lace Fern.

This variety of recent introduction has met with much favor during the past season and especially so as a cut frond for which purpose it is particularly well suited on account of the pinnae being so finely divided, reminding one of a fine piece of lace. The fronds are deep and broad which gives them a cushion-like appearance forming beautiful specimen plants.

Nephrolepis Cordata Compacta.

3 " " 8.00 " "

Nephrolepis Scottii (The Scott Fern).

The Scott Fern still holds its place as one of the most important of the Nephrolepis, the public appreciates well grown plants of it, and the ease and quickness with which saleable plants can be produced and this at a saving of time as well as of room compared with all other varieties, has also made it a favorite with the grower.

2 1/2-inch pots, 60 cts. per doz.; $4.00 per 100; $35.00 per 1000.
6 " " 50 cents each.
8 " pans, ready in November, $1.00 each.

Nephrolepis Superbissima.

The Latest and Most Distinct of the New Boston Ferns.

This new fern is a unique and distinct novelty as different from any of the other crested forms, as they are distinct from the ordinary Boston Fern, it is really in a class by itself. The fronds are very heavily imbricated, the pinnae overlapping, making the fronds very dense and compact. In color also it is different, being of a richer, darker green. The plant is very sturdy in its habit, the fronds never breaking down. It makes a much more dwarf and compact growth, the fronds being very dense, firm and rigid, it will stand more knocking around than any other fern of this type.

Nephrolepis Todeaoides.

Todea or Filmy Fern-like Nephrolepis.

This is an English introduction that has received a first class certificate both from the Royal Horticultural Society and from the Royal Botanic Society of London, and is likely to become a most important commercial variety. While in a general way it reminds one of an exceptionally well grown plant of N. Elegantissima it is entirely distinct from this and all others, in its strong yet compact growth and its bold heavy foliage which is distinctly tripinnate or three times divided.

2 1/4-inch pots, $1.50 per doz.; $90.00 per 100.

Nephrolepis Whitmani.

The Improved Ostrich Plume Fern.

Unquestionably the most valuable of this type superseding Pieroni, Barrowsi and Elegantissima all of which we have now discarded in favor of this variety. Not only is the pinnae on the individual fronds more finely divided but the fronds are denser, broader and more graceful and the habit of the plant is more perfect.

Bactris Major.

Not a new, but a comparatively rare Palm, which, where the temperature of a warm conservatory can be given, is an interesting subject, on account of the many long spines with which not only the stems, but also both surfaces of the leaves are densely covered.

2¼-inch pots, $1.00 per dozen; $8.00 per 100.

Cocos Weddeliana.

We have greatly increased the area of glass devoted to this most graceful of all Palms and we are now devoting six houses covering half an acre of ground to its cultivation, and while heretofore very few plants of it were grown into sizes above 2¼ and 3-inch pots, used principally in fern dishes, we have this season grown many thousands into 5 and 7-inch pots, these are a beautiful lot of plants which are certain to prove valuable not only in fine decorative work but which will also appeal to the retail buyer as a room and table plant.

These are not so well known as they deserve; they are of free, vigorous growth, and can be flowered in pots in early spring, and respond quickly to forcing when placed in a temperature of 50 degrees, forming pretty pot plants in a short time, making excellent window plants, which meet with ready sale when in bloom.

We offer six distinct varieties, from pure white to the deepest rose in color. $1.50 per dozen; $10.00 per 100.

Primula Veris Superba.
